

Meeting Notes
June 15th, 2016

Welcome and Introductions

Our New President, Wendy DalPez, called the meeting to order. Our mission, vision and objectives were reviewed. We read the BPW Collect. All members in attendance introduced themselves and the business they represent, and guests were introduced. Susan Lipson, President of Washington BPW, and Rosalyn Vasquez, Membership Committee Chair, Washington BPW were introduced.

Meeting Sponsor

Our sponsor is April Welch of Flirting with Social. A Boutique style Social media training firm. April can be found unveiling the secrets of social media to marketing decision makers who are ready to find a voice on line.

Approval of Minutes

May and June Minutes will be emailed out for approval.

Treasurer's Report

Wenatchee BPW Treasurer Marie Gooch was absent but Debbie reported for her that we ended our fiscal year in the black. Net income over expenses is $3,823.98

Program

Our speaker was Judy Weaver. Judy spoke about writing our story. She shared that writing our story keeps our memories alive for our family members. She reminded us that we all have a story to tell.

Other Information:

Jenny Napier shared about the event GWATA is having Woman Rule the World event July 20th from 7:30 -9:30 am Connie Hill motioned that we help sponsor this event, Dusti Elfving seconded the motion. This event is free to BPW members to attend. Our very own Wendy DalPez will be speaking at this event. This event is in lieu of our regular meeting.
